

Invasive Plants

Non-native plants that colonize and dominate undisturbed habitats phragmites, bittersweet, garlic mustard, perennial pepperweed, multiflora rose, japanese barberry, burning bush, mugwort Morrow's honeysuckle, autumn olive

Introduced Plants

Non-native plants that grow wild but do not dominate undisturbed habitats dusty miller, climbing hempweed, bouncing bet, st. johnswort, queen anne's lace, mullein, evening primrose, wrinkled rose

Garden Plants

Non-native plants that are often cultivated but seldom become naturalized lilac, hydrangea, kousa dogwood, boston ivy, daylily, hosta, siberian squill, dahlia, annual sunflower

Native Plants

Plants that occur without cultivation. Often dependent on undisturbed habitats, they can become rare in developed areas whorled loosestrife, milkweed, butterflyweed, seaside goldenrod, new york aster, new england aster, sumac, beach plum, virginia creeper, highbush blackberry, trumpet honeysuckle, swamp rose-mallow

need a plant ID'd? Send me a photo at ophis@comcast.net