The Wollaston Garden Club's Plant Sale is Saturday, May 13th from 9:30-12:30. This is a very important fundraiser for the Club and we all need to contribute.

Key points:

- Badly need plants or purchased plants if you don't have any to donate.
- If members have plants and need help dividing them, sign the signup sheet and arrangements will be made.
- There is a workshop to divide perennials and pot them for sale to be held on Saturday, April 22nd from 1-3 at Carol Fischer's house. Carol will do a presentation first on the how to's of dividing and potting the plants.
- All plants from your yard need to be divided by May 1 to give them time to recover from transplant shock..
- A variety of jobs are needed with all signups on the back table.
- Flyers in bright green are on table to give to family and friends. An e-version can be sent out if you prefer. Jan will send it out to the membership.

Kathy Ceurvels and Ann Foresman will be doing an interview with Joe Catalano of QATV on Thursday, May 4, at 9:30 am.

Cleaner Greener Quincy first Saturday in May (6th). Kathy Ceurvels will be sending out an email to remind members. Sign up sheets for corner of Newport and Beale and Josiah Quincy are available on the membership table.

Ann Foresman spoke on the Civic Beautification projects that the Wollaston Garden Club participates in especially Safford Park and the hillside corner at Beale and Newport Ave. Teaming up with Sheriff Bellotti's office who has offenders participate, there was a huge cleanup on April 19th. We're in the 3rd year of a grant that was written to eradicate Japanese knotweed in this area.

Emily Lebo introduced the speaker, Cheryl Monroe who presented "Hydrangeas for the Northeast"

The meeting adjourned at 8:40 p.m.
